ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Anna M. Herr Y. W. C. T. U. meets with their superintendent, Mrs. Fields, at 55 Broadway, Wednesday, at 8 p. m. Special meeting for election of officers, and sewing.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Vaudeville and Motion Pictures.

Charles Carlo's animal circus, something new to the stage at the Auditorium, made a drawing card for Monday evening and Tuesday afternoon, filling the top line place in an attractive vaudeville programme. Carlo and his assistants have three of the handsomest little ponies on trapline, also five clever dogs and a few other animals, which combine to make their act a pleasure to old and young every minute they are on the stage.

James E. McDuff is a mimic and ventriloquist of originality, which is recognized by heavy applause, and the musical part of the programme is contributed by two members of the bill, the Marshalls and Adeline Francis. The latter is a pleasing character singer, while the Marshalls are a colored team with a snappy line of songs and a ragtime artist on the piano.
Lillian Morelle sings the illustrated song, "Heroes That We Know," and a spotlight song, making these a favorite turn on the bill, and the moving pictures present a good variety of interesting subjects.

BROADWAY THEATER.

"Brewster's Millions." A dramatization of George Barr McCutcheon's entertaining story, which secured a pronounced success here last season, will be the attraction at the Broadway theater on Thursday, Dec. 26. Robert Ober will be seen in the title character of Brewster, which he has played for upwards of one hundred consecutive weeks, and the excellent cast is practically the original. May Talbot will be seen as Peggy Gray, and the rest of the cast.

maining lost list of characters will be played respectively by Emily Lytton, Senator Lennon, Ada May, Grace Arnold, Joseph Koon, Albert Sackett and a score of others.

There is nothing new to say about the play. The triumph of stagecraft is attained in the wonderful scene on shipboard, the yacht rocking in the gale, when Monty sounds the signal of distress, thus disposing in less than a second of the $500,000 which had been worrying him for weeks.

Of course, it is all wildly improbable, so was the book, but there is fun enough in this whimsical story of financial distress to make even the blasé play-goer laugh.

Seats on sale at the box office, Waukegan house, and Pitcher & Service's on Tuesday, Nov. 30th, at 9 o'clock.

BREED THEATER.

"Briton and Boer." Sensational War Picture.

Again the Breed theater was crowded, and the eager crowd was more than delighted with the general excellence of the great bill. As a headliner, the great feature picture of the Boer war, entitled Briton and Boer, made a most favorable impression, the story of which was never seen in this city. At times the entire screen is filled with stampeding forces from both sides, and the mountain sides are black with troops of the British, while the Boers are cleverly concealing their limited number by hiding in dugouts. There are several scenes of the combats, but the most spectacular is the last fatal stand at Paardeburg, where the surrender of Cronje takes place. A beautiful romance serves as a vehicle for the display of military action, the Boer leader's daughter having met and fallen in love with the British general while in England at school.

Another great feature is the wonderful pictures of Annette Kellerman in her physical culture, diabolio, fancy diving and swimming. Miss Kellerman has just closed a three months' engagement at the Keith theater, Boston, and has the proud distinction of being the highest paid single entertainer in the vaudeville business, receiving $2,500 as her weekly salary, as testified to before a notary by her managers.

Miss Wolcott sings two new songs this week, and, as usual, receives insistent encores.

Both Study Class and Chorus to Be Organized Tonight.

The committee in charge of the People's Singing classes are anxious to impress upon everyone who anticipates joining either of those classes the advisability of being present at the meeting this evening and enrolling then. The early lessons to the study class are the most valuable of all, as correct principles of voice production are then laid for future work and no one who anticipates working with the class should lose these. Everyone is welcome to this meeting and a place will be found for those who can sing as well as for those who want to learn. This is the People's chorus and the People's class, and the greater the interest and enthusiasm, the greater will be the development of the work.

Town hall tonight at 8 o'clock.

X-RAY FOUND NEEDLE.

Physicians Remove Steel from Knee of Mayor's Son.

Russell Buckingham, oldest son of Mayor and Mrs. E. T. Buckingham of Bridgeport, ran a needle in his knee a few days since. Saturday his physician removed a portion of the needle and to make sure that no more remained that needle possibly create blood poisoning he took the little fellow to a private sanitarium, where the knee was X-rayed and the wound cleaned out.

For 22 inch waist measure the skirt will require 7 1/2 yards of material 20 inches wide, 8 1/2 yards 24 inches wide, 4 1/2 yards 36 inches wide, 3 1/2 yards 42 inches wide or 2 1/2 yards 48 inches wide. Width of lower edge in medium size about three yards.

POETRY.

TO SOME PHILADELPHIA SPARROWS.

Men say unfriendly words of you, poor birds!
And I praise you for your easy joy
On dusty streets; I love you for your twitter
In vines that cling to heated city walls;
Your noisy congregations on the trees,
Unheeding ways of saying this and that
About your brother men; your gossamer
In parks near by a fountain's dripping brim.

Men say your manners are not fine.
And, too, they call you scavengers, they call you
And enemy to other prettier birds.
Perhaps we are one feather, you and I
I would not hold it any grudge to be
Your brother bird upon the city street.

I love you chattering! Yet I have heard
The lark in other lands, the thrush in this.
Dull indeed a day had been without your din,
Your wrangles under foot, your shameless ways.

Men say unfriendly words of you. Of me
They speak unkindly, too. Yet see how gay
We are! Ah, well, we are one feather, you
And I! We have the city streets for plunder.
The caves for wonder, and above there is the sky.
—Jeannette Marks, in Success Magazine.
